JUST IN TIME FOR CHRISTMAS, THE ULTIMATE EXPERIENCE: PRIVATE JET FOOD TOUR OF SPAIN WITH MIMO

San Sebastián, SPAIN (November 5, 2018) – Mimo, the pioneering culinary tourism company is taking luxury travel to another level. Taking guests on a whirlwind tasting of Spain, hopping to and from the most delicious cities in a luxurious private jet. The jet flies from Sevilla to Mallorca and San Sebastián, to experience the local food, do some hands-on cooking, and dine Michelin style.

The experience begins aboard the Mimo jet: no airport lines, no train rides—just the lap of luxury, whisking from five-star hotel to five-star hotel, with an itinerary of amazing tailor-made culinary experiences. This bespoke itinerary takes you everywhere—from the pintxo bars of San Sebastián, for a tour with one of our award-winning guides to the hills of Mallorca, where you will experience a day on a working olive oil finca, with a stop in Sevilla in between to get a taste of the most typical Spanish tapas. Between experiences, you will be guided by one of our Mimo experts, tasting local wines and dining in a Michelin-star restaurant.

“We believe that this really is the ultimate Christmas present you can give to yourself or your loved ones,” says Jon Warren, CEO of Mimo. “Imagine starting 2019 with the trip of a lifetime to look forward to. We are offering a unique opportunity to experience the absolute best food & wine that Spain has to offer hopping from city to city in a luxurious private jet and of course staying in three of the most luxurious five-star hotels in the world. This will be one truly unforgettable and very special trip.”

Prices begin at €6500 per person for a three-night trip, including all food and five-star accommodation, and flights aboard Victor’s 8-passenger Phenom 300 jet. For more information go to Mimofood.com.
